Section 1 – Guidance Notes

The following persons may apply for a premises licence:

- a person who carries on, or proposes to carry on, a business which involves the use of the premises for the licensable activities to which the application relates
- a person who makes the application pursuant to:
 - any statutory function discharged by that person which relates
 - to those licensable activities, or
 - any function discharged by that person by virtue of Her Majesty's prerogative,
- a recognised club
- a charity
- the proprietor of an educational institution
- a health service body
- a person who is registered under Part 2 of the Care Standards Act 2000 (c. 14) in respect of an independent hospital
- the chief officer of police of a police force in England and Wales
- a person of such other description as may be prescribed

An application to re-instate the licence can only be made no later than 7 days after the date the licence lapsed.

An application for transfer to re-instate a licence must be specified to have immediate effect.

The licence will lapse again if, and when:

- The application for transfer is rejected
- The application is withdrawn

Only one application for transfer of the premises licence may be made in order to re-instate a licence under section 50 of the Licensing Act 2003.
